Beautification,
Special Events,
Local Affairs,
Membership,
Public Relations, and Fundraising

Each chairperson shall designate his/her committee.

Section A. Duration: Chairpersons and members of standing committees shall serve for the calendar term but may be replaced by the President upon written notice to the member to be replaced.

Section B. Special Committees: The President may also appoint special committees and they shall serve at the pleasure of the President.

Section C. Quorum: A majority of the members of a committee shall constitute a quorum.

Section D. Standing Committees' Projects and Activities: The Board of Directors must approve major committee projects.

Section E. Beautification: Monitor the appearance of the neighborhood and promote programs that enhance that appearance. Homeowners whose property is below the average of the area should be brought to the attention of the board, which shall decide the appropriate action.

Section F. Special Events: This committee shall plan and organize small events to attract members to meetings and larger special events that bring the neighborhood together and benefit the quality of life in the neighborhood. They should offer activities for the children and support N.A.N.A.'s treasury and/or community efforts.

Section G. Local Affairs: Shall keep abreast of local issues affecting N.A.N.A., like traffic and road concerns along with code and zoning services, and bring those issues to the attention of the President and/or the Board of Directors. This would include attending meetings of civic groups N.A.N.A. may be a member of and promoting groups which work towards the betterment of our area.

Section H. Membership: Shall promote membership on a regular basis, have a member table to sign in new members at every event, keep accurate lists of dues-paying members and issue membership cards each year. The committee should also maintain an active list of volunteers.

Section I. Public Relations: The committee shall publish a newsletter and keep the residents and the public informed about our activities, including placing notices and ads in the "Sun-Sentinel", preparing posters, flyers and signs along with the appropriate distribution to publicize our events. The Board of Directors has the right of review for all publications.

Section J. Fundraising: The Fundraising Committee shall organize and promote fundraising activities for N.A.N.A. on a regular basis.

ARTICLE 17. RESIGNATIONS:

A member may resign by filing with the Secretary a written statement to that effect signed by such member. The resignation shall take effect immediately upon request and acceptance thereof. Ratification by the membership is not necessary. All property of N.A.N.A. must be returned to an officer immediately upon cessation of good standing.

ARTICLE 18. AMENDMENTS:

No part of these by-laws shall be altered, suspended, or replaced unless a proposal to that affect is submitted in writing signed by three (3) members in good standing. At the third (3rd) meeting thereafter, having been read at the two previous meetings, the members of N.A.N.A. having been fully notified in writing thereof, if two-thirds (2/3) of the members present vote in favor of the amendment it shall be adopted.

ARTICLE 19. ATTENDANCE:

If any elected Officer or Member of the Board of Directors is absent from four (4) meetings during a calendar year (General Meetings for Officers or Board Meetings for Directors) the Board at its discretion shall be empowered to terminate the violator's position after hearing any and all reasons for the absences.

If the Board decides by majority vote to terminate the offender from their office the decision is final and a replacement shall be selected as per Article 14, VACANCIES
